THE INDEPENDENT'S FUTURE, Interesting and Conflicting Opinions From Which the Reader May

We give space, as a part of the news of of the day, to a few of the newspaper com- dressing ever made, and by far the most ments on the recent change in the manage-IT IS EACKED BY HILL.

Portland Oregonian: The sale of the IN-DEPENDENT is of importance nationally, as it indicates that the contest of the comas it indicates that the contest of a traction ing election will be waged on an entirely different issue by the democrats than the November election of 1888, when Carter, republican, defeated Clark, democrat, by 5,000 majority. Lyman is known to be backed by the Hill interest in New York.

The change in the management of the The change in the management of the Independent has created a sensation in Montana politics. party have been united by this move, and have an understanding as to the distribution of the senators, governor and congressmen.

It is for CLEVELAND.

St. Louis Republic: A dispatch was received here to-day announcing that Mr. A.
W. Lyman, until recently in charge of the New York Sun's Washington burean, had purchased a controlling interest in the Heiena (Mont.) Independent of the New York Sun, earned the reputation of being one of the ablest writers and most diligent news gatherers at the national capital. He is a democrat to the marrow, and what is better, a democrat with western ideas, fully imbued with the power and greatness of the west, both materially and politically. During the last few years of Mr. Lyman's stay in Washington his position was not agreeable to him. He is a real democrat and consequently would not sympatnize with the pointeal vagaries of the Sun. He is a tarily instruction for the propose only costs but 25 cents. The article we refer to is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoa Remedy. It is a certain cure for cramps, colic, cholera infantum, and bowel complaint in all its forms. No family can afford to be without it during the summer months as an any of the purpose only costs but 25 cents. The article we refer to is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera infantum, and bowel complaint in all its forms. No family can afford to be without it during the summer months as an instance, as the best precedit of the purpose only costs but 25 cents. The article we refer to is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoa Remedy. It is a certain cure for cramps, colic, cholera infantum, and bowel complaint in all its forms. No family can afford to be without it during the summer months as an instance, as the best remedy there is for the purpose only costs but 25 cents. The article we refer to is Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera infantum, and bowel complaint in all its forms. No family can afford to be without it during the summer months as great suffering and even life may be saved by it before a physician could abling it to become a state.

IT WILL BE WATCHED FOR SIGNS. Springfield, Mass., Republican: A. W. Lyman, for some years the capable Washington correspondent of the New York Sun, has bought a controlling interest in the Helena INDEPENDENT of Montana, the democratic organ of that region, and has assumed possession. Mr. Lyman has been one of the expert students of current politics, and his course will be followed with interest now that he has branched out for himself. He was for several years before the indispensable condition of vigorous the himself. He was for several years before going to Washington the Sun's correspondent at Albany, and knows the ropes. IT WILL NOT GO ZIG ZAG.

Detroit Free Press: The democrat party lated on the purchase of the Helena INDE-PENDENT, the leading democratic paper of rendered the state of the state of the state, by Mr. A. W. Lyman, for many years the able Washington correspondent of the New York Sun. Mr. Lyman was one of the very best of the corps of press representatives at the national capital. He is a thorough newspaper man, capable, industrious and honest. The zig-zag course dustrious and honest. The zig-zag course of the great New York luminary has never affected the sturdy democracy of Mr. Lyman, and he will give the party in the new state both loyal service and intelligent newspaper leadership. A STREET IN A CORNETELD.

NOT FOR HILL.

St. Paul Pioneer Press: Montana is to be congratulated. A. W. Lyman purchased the controlling interest in the Independent of that place yesterday, and entered into possession as editor and proprietor. Lyman has been the correspondent of the New York Sun for five years and an attache of that paper for twelve. There was no more esteemed or trusted correspondent on the row. He has solid qualities that fit him peculiarly for the responsible conduct of a newspaper. He is of the Sun school professionally but not politically. The story that he has gone out there to run a Hill-protection organ is nonsense. He is in sympathy with the other wing of the party, and is a sincere supporter of Cleveland. He is a good citizen as well as a good democrat. Montana is in luck to get him. He will soon have a newspaper to be proud of.

HILL AFTER ALL.

HILL AFTER ALL. Chicago Inter Ocean: The Helena (M. Chicago Inter Ocean: The Helena (M.
T.) INDEFENDENT has been purchased by the friends of Governor Hill, and A. W.
Lyman, formerly of the New York Sun, is the new editor. It is for Governor Hill for re-election in New York, and will support him for the presidency. The Hill boom is beginning already, and Mr. Cleveland must look to his laurels if he is to smash the Hill machine in 1892 as he did in 1888

For any body and non-committal.

Bozeman Avant Courier: Mr. A. W. Lyman, recently of the New York Sun, has finally secured a controlling interest in the Helena Independent of the paper. In his salutatory Mr. Lyman shrewdly conceals his tariff-protection sentiments—if he entertaint any—by declaring he is in favor of Gov. Hill, or ex President Cleveland, or, by intimation at least, any other prominent democrat for the presidency in 1892. In other words, he wants it to be distinctly understood that he is a democrat from the shoulder, and that he will deal telling blows against every formidable antagonist of modern democracy during the approaching campaign, and subsequently, chould he survive. Mr. Lyman is doubtless a very capable newspaper man, both editorially and financially, but the Avant Courier, while extending to him a generous well-commend the manufacture of the northwest and runs through points between Billings and Missoula, inclusive, to Garrison and return at a rate of one and one-fifth fares for the iound trip. Tickets will be sold August 11th to 17th, or the mortal and the manufacture of the montana Central railway.

For the G. A. R. encampment at Milwaukee the Montana Central railway will make a rate of one fare ($58.60) for the round trip. Tickets on sale August 21 and 23, limited to continuous passage for going trip, with stop-over privileges on return trip. Extreme limit sixty days. These tickets may be interchangeable and used by opposite route returning. Remember that the Montana Central railway. while extending to him a generous wel-come to Montana journalism, predicts that he will have both his hands and head full of business activities and political respons-ibilities as they can comfortably hold, at least during the next few months.

STRAIGHT BOURBON. Deer Lodge New Northwest: The long Deer Lodge New Northwest: The long heralded "Hili and protection" policy in connection with the Helena INDEPENDENT'S change of editors failed to materialize. Mr. A. W. Lyman took hold yesterday morning and in his salutatory declares his aliegiance to straight bourbonism—free trade and all. No doubt the Montana democracy would, if it could, modify its party's position on the free trade issue; but the Montana democracy, like the democracy of all northern states, is under domination of the southern wing and it democracy of an northern wing and it dare not ruille a feather. It poses picturesquely between the devil and the dark and deep blue sea. Nationally it will be damned if it does—locally it will be damned if it don't.

FOR A UNITED DEMOCRACY. Great Falls Tribune: Mr. A. W. Lyman one and one-fifth fare for the round trip, assumed the management of the INDEPENDENT yesterday, and his announcement of the fact has the true democratic ring. He shows that the canards telegraphed to Montana ahead of him are without the slightest foundation and proclaims that the INDEPENDENT will be a thorough going, unwavering democratic paper, and that it will fight successfully the battles of a united Montana democracy in the coming campaign. Success to the INDEPENDENT and the new management.

Boulder Sentinel: A. W. Lyman has assumed the business management and presidency of the riclena Independent. He will be its editor also. He has had much experience as a newspaper writer on the New York Sun.

Butte Inter Mountain: Mr. Lyman, late of the New York Sun, has taken charge of the Independent. He impresses people here as a cultured gentleman and his ability as a writer was well illustrated this morning in a double-leaded card setting forth the policy of the paper. There will be no radical change and its politics will continue to be of the Mills-bill, free-trade order. There is no sign of a tendency to advocate the protection of American industries and wages and nothing about wool and lead. Mr. Lyman becomes director and business manager in place of E. W. Knight, resigned, but it is not believed that Mr. Hauser will relinquish control of the paper. To stand off Mr. Lyman the Journal has engaged Emanuel Levi Quigg, whose first work appears this morning, and the citizens of Helena to day are velocities. Be sure to get only whose first work appears this morning, and the citizens of Helena to-day are ve-hemently discussing the relative capacity of their literary and political Ajaxes. DEMOCRATIC BUT INDEPENDENT. Evening Star, Washington, D. C.: Mr. A. W. Lyman has resigned his position as Washington correspondent of the New York Sun to become the editor and pro-York Sun to become the editor and pro-prietor of the Helena (Montana) INDE-PENDENT. He has purchased a control-ling interest in that paper and to-day as-sumes entire charge, under conditions that promise success to the enterprise. Mr. Lyman has for twelve years been one of the most valued men associated with the Sun, whice he has served as Albany cor-respondent, at an editorial desk in the home office, and for the last five years at Washington. He is a man of strong judgment and ability, ranking among the first of Washington correspondents, and the whole newspaper community wish him success. The INDEPENDENT will be a democratic paper of a vigorous and independent character.
